The Croghan Colonial Bank Announces Promotion

FREMONT, OH – In recognition of her outstanding efforts to support the company, Rick Robertson, President & CEO of Croghan Colonial Bank, is pleased to announce the promotion of Teresa R. Joseph. "Teresa's leadership has helped us both strengthen our residential real estate products and has led to increased loan production," says Robertson. "These improvements have helped us provide better service and more loans to our customers."

Teresa R. Joseph has been promoted to Vice President. Teresa will continue in her role as Manager of Residential Real Estate Lending. Teresa has over 17 years of banking experience and has been with Croghan Colonial Bank since March, 2011. Teresa has made numerous positive contributions to the bank and has played an increasingly important role to our Residential Real Estate Division. Teresa attended the Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas as well as the University of Phoenix. She lives in Fremont with her husband and their three children.

The Croghan Colonial Bank was founded in 1888 and proudly serves Sandusky, Erie, Huron, Ottawa, Seneca and Wood counties with office locations in Fremont, Bellevue, Clyde, Custar, Green Springs, Monroeville, Norwalk, Port Clinton and Tiffin. Croghan Colonial Bank is a recognized leader in community banking throughout the region in helping all members of the communities, including businesses and corporations, achieve their financial goals.
